CLERK: I move LB 863 become law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. Signed Senator Nichol.

PRESIDENT: Which one.

CLERK: 863.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, we have been spending money. Now we can collect a little bit, perhaps. I know you have all been disappointed once or twice during the afternoon, perhaps, but this is the one that probably should be done. I ask you to ask yourself how many roads have been built in your area, whether you live in the city or small city or rural area, during the last two or three years and probably the answer will be not many if any.

PRESIDENT: Excuse me, Senator Nichol. Would you move to raise the Call?

SENATOR NICHOL: I move to raise the Call, please.

PRESIDENT: All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. The
